OF GREATER PORTLAND, OREGON

What Color Do YOU Bleed?

November 1, 2014

The Stumptown Orange and other alumni clubs which call Macadam's Bar & Grill home joined forces to collect two dozen units of blood during the third annual What Color Do YOU Bleed? Drive.

The Magnolia State was well represented, with Auburn and Alabama both contributing to cause. In fact, the Tigers had eight donors, including Clay Wesson (below center, #89), more than any other school. 'Bama added a pair, including Joanna Shratter (above, right).

Donors resenting North Carolina State, Delaware, Portland State, Oregon, Linfield, and Clark College also rolled up their sleeves for the cause. And there were volunteers like Mary Dickinson Jensen ('13, below left) who staffed the sign-in table and canteen.

Bert Krages (left) donated on behalf of Northwestern, as did

Meanwhile, inside the sports bar eyes were glued to the screens and the conversation was hot and heavy. Thanks to everyone for your support!
